Provide for the increase of the Salaries of certain Land Commissioners in Ireland, and for other purposes connected with the Land Commission. A.D. 1892

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Land Commissioners (Ireland) Short title.
Salaries Act, 1892.

2. From and after the date at which the appeals mentioned in subsection two of section twenty-nine of the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1891, shall have been disposed of, the salary to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund to each of the Commissioners appointed under the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1885, shall be, at his option (to be signified to the Treasury within two months after the passing of this Act), either an annual salary of three thousand pounds, in which case he shall not be entitled to any pension or superannuation allowance, or an annual salary of two thousand five hundred pounds, in which case he shall be entitled to a superannuation allowance calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887. Salaries of Commissioners.

3. As soon as the state of business in the Land Commission permits, the number of the Land Commissioners shall, as vacancies occur, be reduced to three, one of whom shall be a Judicial Land Commissioner, and until the number of the Commissioners is so reduced any vacancy occurring in their number shall not be filled except on a certificate from the Lord Lieutenant to the effect that in his opinion the state of business in the Land Commission requires the vacancy to be filled. Reduction of Commissioners.
